

Dr Holger Preuss

Professor

Johannes Gutenberg University, GER

Dr Holger Preuss is Professor of Sport Economics and Sport Sociology at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz, Germany, and at the Molde University College, Norway. He is also adjunct professor at the University of Ottawa, Canada, and an international scholar at the State University of New York (Cortland).

He was editor of European Sport Management Quarterly, one of the world's leading journals in sport management, from 2012 to 2014. He is associate editor of the Journal of Sport & Tourism. Preuss has published 16 books and more than 125 articles in international journals and books. During the past decade, he has been invited to deliver more than 140 presentations all over the world.

Preuss' field of research is directed at economic and socio-economic aspects of sport. His specialty lies in the socio-economic impact analysis of mega-sport events such as the Olympic Games since 1972 and the FIFA World Cup since 2006. He recently completed his research on cost overruns at Olympic Games, and continuously develops the framework and measurement legacy of mega events.

Preuss is member of the IOC Legacy and Sustainability Commission, the Union Internationale de Pentathlon Moderne(UIPM) Future Commission, and the World Flying Disc Federation (WFDF) Ethics Commission
